

The Big Broadoak Year 6 Reading Challenge

1 Write your own short story using some of the reading you have done as inspiration. You could use the character of Matilda and send her on an adventure! Maybe you could consider what young Ema's life will be like when she grows up? What would it be like to visit a firework factory? You could even illustrate your story.	2 Research Malala Yousufzai. What information can you find out about her? She's really inspirational! You could use the internet or books to research. Create a fact page about her with all the information you find. Consider: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Her education • Her charity work • Famous speeches and books • What she is doing now 	3 Create a book cover for one of the stories you have read in this pack, or for your favourite book of all time. Include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • An illustration • A blurb • Reviews and quotes If you need inspiration, go to your school library or look at some books you can find at home.
4 "Matilda set out all by herself to walk to the public library in the village. When she arrived, she introduced herself to the librarian, Mrs Phelps." Go to your school library, a public library, or find a book at home that you haven't read before that is about someone learning something new. Read the blurb – and maybe the whole book if it takes your fancy! Write up a report about which book you found and what you thought of it.	5 There are some really exciting and ambitious word choices in the text we have sent you. Can you make a glossary of words that are new to you? Make a list of up to 10 unfamiliar words. Look them up in a dictionary or ask someone to explain it to you so you can write a definition for each one. You could try and use these words to create some descriptive sentences to help you remember what they mean.	6 Take the events, characters and ideas from one of these stories and turn it in to a different kind of text. Choose from: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Newspaper article • Storyboard • Series of letters • A poem You could add any illustrations to your work.

How many tasks can you complete? Stick me on your wall and use the stickers to chart your progress!