Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Broadoak Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- making contact with a member of staff such as a Head of house, SENDCo or the exams officer to discuss your concern, this will be raised with the Exams officer and/or another member of senior staff who will respond to and resolve the concern raised. Where possible this should be documented to keep a record of the concern and the outcome that was reached.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- Danny McGilloway (Head of Centre)
Carina Ridge (Assistant Principal).

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 working days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- submit their complaint in writing to Mr McGilloway (Head of Centre) or Mrs Ridge (Assistant Principal).

How a formal complaint is investigated

Formal complaints will be investigated and conducted as per the processes outlined in the academies complaints policy available on the school website: Key information>Policies>Complaints policy.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 10 days.

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- follow the centres internal appeals policy, details of which will be provided in the outcome letter and/or further details are in the complaints policy available on the academy website: Key information> Exam information> Useful information> Internal Appeals Procedure \(Reviews of results and Appeals\).

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 working days.

The appeal will be referred to:

- the relevant awarding body and/or the Head of centre, and/or the relevant Senior member of staff.

It will be the responsibility of a designated member of the Senior Leadership team.

to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.

Additional details on the internal appeals process:

Not applicable.
